The New York Sun of Jan. 11 says of Miss Lemon, of this city: "Miss Marguer-ite Lemon, who was well known among New Yorkers in connection with light opera, is one of Conreid's latest acquisitions. She helps materially to raise the average of beauty in the company, besides having a voice which just fits the opera house. She sang the 'Jewel song' from 'Faust' with fine finish, ease and self-possession and the house demanded an encore. The same paper of Jan. 19 says of her performance in "Stegfried." Miss Lemon sang the 'Forest Bird' unseen, but like many a gem of purest ray serene, she was always there and always in time and tune, an first and last a real achievement."
